

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, approximately one in every 800 children are born with Down syndrome, representing an estimated 5,000 births per year in the United States; and

WHEREAS, while research and early intervention have resulted in dramatic improvements in the life span and potential of those who are affected, more investigation is needed into the causes and treatment of Down syndrome; and

WHEREAS, possessing a wide range of abilities, people with Down syndrome are active participants in educational, occupational, social, and recreational circles of our communities; and

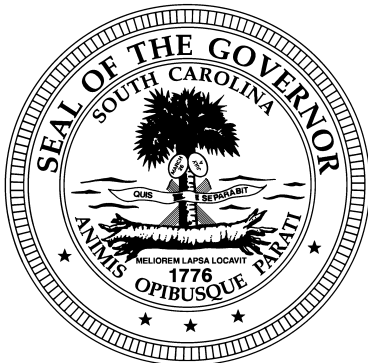

WHEREAS, developed by the National Down Syndrome Society in 1995, the Buddy Walk is an annual event in cities across South Carolina and the nation celebrating the accomplishments of children and adults with Down syndrome; and

WHEREAS, the goal of the Buddy Walk is to promote increased understanding and acceptance of all people with Down syndrome, while raising funds for scientific research into its cause and treatment.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Sanford, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim October 2005 as

throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to work together to promote awareness of Down syndrome and to celebrate the accomplishments of individuals and their families.
